Hon. Wm. J. Bryan Heard
Again In An After Dinner Speech.

Despite the sudden change in wintry weather, Hon. W. J. Bryan was greeted by a large crowd at the Tabernacle last night and the great Commoner talked to his hearers as only Bryan can talk. The lecture "The Prince of Peace" is said to be the best of all his productions. Certainly it gives him every opportunity to sustain his reputation as the foremost orator of the day.

Mr. Bryan was briefly introduced by Mayor Meacham and was greeted with vociferous applause.

His lecture was under the auspices of McLean College.

LONGEST STREET

Will be Thirteenth When Extended to Ninth.

The residents on East Thirteenth street have petitioned the Council to extend that street from its present termination, through the old pond known as Thompson's bottom to East Ninth street, near the residence of J. H. Cate. It would require a big fill in the wet weather pond, but the street when opened will be the longest straight street in the city, extending in an air line from the Pioneer Graveyard to within a short distance of the eastern limits of the city, a distance of nearly two miles. The matter is now in the hands of the street committee, which will make a favorable report.

NITRO GLYCERINE

Used by Burglars at Cerulean Springs.

Foster Rawls general merchandise store at Cerulean Springs, in which the postoffice is kept, was broken open about two o'clock Saturday morning, but the thieves secured very little. Entrance was effected by prizing the front door. The safe was blown open with nitro glycerine, but it contained only some small change, probably about fifty cents, which was taken. The burglars also opened the stamp drawer in the postoffice department, securing about fifty cents in pennies and nickels. Mr. Rawls is postmaster. Bloodhounds from Cadiz were brought to Cerulean Saturday morning, but the thieves could not be located.

ER NAIRN MANAGER

Vincennes Releases The Heavy Hitting First Baseman.

MOGULS GOBBLE HIM

Live Dope For The Coming Baseball Season.

Every fan in Hopkinsville will be glad to know that the Mogul Directors have signed a contract with "Mother" John Nairn, to manage the team the coming season. He will not only manage but will play first base as he did for Vincennes last season. As every one knows, he was one of the heaviest hitters in the League and was popular with the public. He is expected to bring with him DeHaven, the best third baseman in the League and also several good pitchers and fielders.

Among the new men already signed are a catcher named Mace, a second baseman named Clark and a shortstop named Ireland and Powers, pitchers and several others. Of the old players contracts have been renewed to Brown, Murray, Yon, Lyons, Johnson, Guy Johnson, McElfresh, Mike Taylor and others. There will be no scarcity of material to select from and manager Nairn promises to make it a winning team.

He will assemble them at Danville, Ill., a month ahead and play practice games in that circuit before coming here. Last year by playing his way for Vincennes he made Vincennes start the season with a small profit, whereas Hopkinsville opened the season $1,000 in the hole.

Word comes that Murray has accepted a job with the L. & N. Railroad and may not play ball this season.

Brown is also laid up from sticking a nail in his foot.

Leg Broken By Fall.

Mr. W. T. Williamson fell on the ice in his yard yesterday and broke a small bone of his right leg above the ankle. He will be laid up for a time.

Japanese "soy" is exported chiefly to the United States, Hawaii, Port of Spain, Dainy and Korea, each taking approximately 400,000 gallons annually.

Painfully Injured When T.
C. Train Was Derailed.

TWENTY OTHERS HURT.

Two Coaches Were Burned
And One Woman
Cremated.

Passenger train No. 14, on the Tennessee Central, which left Hopkinsville at 4:00 p. m. Sunday was derailed two miles this side of Clarksville while pulling slowly into a sidetrack.

Twenty-one passengers were injured by two of the passenger coaches turning over. The accident was due to the dropping of a brake shoe across a spring rail frog.

Great excitement was caused by the coaches catching fire from the gas lamps immediately after the accident. The coaches were destroyed. All of the injured passengers were taken to their respective homes.

Another coach was sent to the scene of the accident from Clarksville to bring the passengers in. A majority of the passengers were from Clarksville, and were met there at the train by conveyances provided by the railroad company, and carried to their homes. The train continued on into Nashville, with the same crew, arriving about three hours late.

The members of the crew were: Conductor, S. A. Cherry; flagman, Hunter Webb; expressman, I. H. Brannon; engineer, L. W. Newton; fireman, Dick Turner; newsboy, E. J. Patterson. All reside in Nashville. None were injured except Mr. Webb, whose side and leg were wrenched. But for the quick work of the crew in taking passengers from the overturned cars many fatalities would have resulted, it is believed.

KILLED.

Unknown white woman whose body was found in the burned debris, yesterday.

THE INJURED.

Those injured according to the report received by the officials of the Tennessee Central were as follows: HOPKINSVILLE.

Thos. L. Metcalfe, head cut, back wrenched, finger broken and many bruises.

Mormon Church a Great Secret Society.

In his article on "The Mormon Revival of Polygamy" in the February McClure's, Burton J. Hendrick speaks of the deceptive attitude of the Mormon Church toward plural marriages, which, while it openly repudiates, secretly encourages polygamy. Mr. Hendrick says:

"The anti-Mormon view is that this public repudiation of polygamy is simply part of the Mormon game.
Its purpose is to blind the outside world. The Mormon policy is secretly to promote and encourage polygamy, and outwardly to repudiate
it. The critic most friendly to the Mormons must admit that, outwardly, many circumstances lend color to this view. The one prominent fact is that the Mormon Church is a great secret society. Non-Mormons are never permitted to enter its temples; the rites and instruction that take place in them are never officially made public; all members of the church are oathbound, under the most frightful penalties, not to reveal these mysteries. Mormons who have "gone through" these temples wear, day and night, an undergarment, inscribed with mystic symbols, as a perpetual reminder of these oaths. The church has its marriage records, but never permits
the non-Mormon public to see them.
The publication of these records would go a long way toward proving, or disproving, the charge that the church encourages polygamy;
but they are held inviolate in the temples. In 1904 the United States Senate attempted, unsuccessfully, to subpoena them. If these records are entirely innocent, and if the statement of the church is true, that the entries concern only marriages that are valid in the eyes of the civil law, why should they not be produced?"

Does This Mean You?

Did you ever notice how often women otherwise daintily dressed use soiled gloves? Her collar, blouse, coat and skirt and even her shoes are marred by dirt and yet nine times out of ten if she uses kid gloves they are soiled. Once there was reason for this. Gloves are expensive and in spite of care are quickly soiled, but now all this is changed. Everneat glove cleaner offers to every one a quick and easy way to wear only clean gloves.

All colors and shades may be cleaned as often as desired without injury to most delicate.

Everneat is sold in one ounce packages, price 50 cents. If your dealer cannot supply you send postoffice order or check, we will send to you by mail.

SEVENTEEN-YEAR
LOCUSTS RETURN

No Mistake About the Pests
"Coming Back" for First Grubs are Found.

TROUBLE TO FARMERS

But Chinese Welcome Visitation, For They Provide Delicate Dishes.

New York, Feb. 17.—The seventeen-year locusts, which are due to return to plague the American farmer
this summer after being absent since 1894, have made their appearance in the vicinity of New York City. Curator Ditmars, of the New York Zoological Society, has discovered the first grubs, several thousand in number, in an excavation near Nyack, N. Y. By the time the frost is out of the ground, these thousands will be millions, he says.

During the last previous visitation
the locusts literally covered suburban New York, stripping trees, bushes, hedges, lawns and truck farms of everything green and then, moving in vast clouds which obscured the sun, sought fresh fields. The individual locusts lived only a few days, but each female in that time found time to lay about 500 eggs on the branches of denuded trees.

When the larvae hatched they fell to the ground and burrowed straight down for more than a foot. There it is said they have rested for seventeen years before the process of hatching was completed, and as soon as the frost leaves the ground they will dig their way to the surface and appear as small oblong shells.

The grubs found in the excavation at Nyack are said to be completely formed and ready to come to the surface as soon as the earth warms up.

Chinatown will welcome the visitation. The Chinese cook makes them into pies, roasts them, eats them as a salad and dresses them in many mysterious ways, and even New Yorkers have found some of these dishes palatable.

Thirty Years Together.

Thirty years of association—think of it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—or the worthlessness of a bad one. So there's no guesswork in this evidence of Thos. Ariss, Concord, Mich., who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for 30 years, and its
the best cough and cold cure I ever used." Once it finds entrance in a home you can't pry it out. Many families have used it forty years.
It's the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth. Unequaled for lagrippe, asthma, hay-fever, croup, quinsy or sore lungs. Price

anteed by all druggists.

Row Over Peary,

Washington, Feb. 17.—Representative Macon, of Arkansas, speaking in general debate on the naval appropriation bill in the house last night, made a sensational attack upon Capt. Robert E. Peary, denouncing him as a "fakir" and declaring that he "should be driven from the naval service."

The bitter words used by the member from Arkansas called out a quick reply from Peary's friends.
Representative J. Hampton Moore, of Pennsylvania, after vainly attempting to interrupt Mr. Macon, finally got the floor in his own right.
He characterized Mr. Macon's speech as "unjust, outrageous and offensive."

Accused Of Stealing.

E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Me., boldly accuses Bucklen's Arnica Salve of stealing—the sting from burns or scalds—the pain from sores of all kinds—the distress from boils or piles. "It robs cuts, corns, bruises, sprains and injuries of their terror," he says, "as a healing remedy its equal don't exist. Only 25c at all druggists."

Japanese "soy" is exported chiefly to the United States, Hawaii, Port Arthur, Dainy and Korea, each taking approximately 400,000 gallons annually.

Helpless As a Baby.

Valley Heights, Va.—Mrs. Jennie
B. Kirby, in a letter from this place, says: "I was sick in bed for nine months, with womanly troubles. I was so weak and helpless, at times, that I could not raise my head off the pillow. I commenced to take Cardui, and I saw it was helping me, at once. Now, I can work all day." As a tonic, for weak women, nothing has been found, for fifty years,
that would take the place of Cardui.
It will surely do you good. Cardui is prepared from vegetable ingredients, and has a specific, curative effect on the womanly organs. Try a bottle today. At your druggist's.

Fighting to Hear Bryan.

Rev. Dr. Chas. Dirke, of Clarksville in his lecture on the World's Conference on Foreign Missions, given last Wednesday night at the Ninth St. Christian Church, told an interesting story of how the people and visitors of Edinburgh, where the conference was held, fought to hear the "Great Commoner." Dr. Deihl said that as soon as the ticket office was open for the sale of sittings for the Bryan lecture, which was announced as a special feature of the Conference, a multitude gathered, bought all the space in the house and still demanded sittings. So it became necessary to display sign at the place of sale announcing to the throngs about it that no other inch of space remained unused and importuning the people to go away.
Dr. Deihl said further that men sprinted for places in the lines of purchasers of the coveted space.

This demand to hear Mr. Bryan was the more remarkable and significant in view of the fact that the city was full of men of most exalted character, of noblest intellect, and of splendid oratorical gifts, who also were on the Conference program.
It adds further lustre to Mr. Bryan's triumph that in the lines of those who struggled and battled that they might hear him, were representatives of all the civilizations of our time. It should be noted also that he spoke at the time appointed for an hour and a half and that no one worried and all were as alert and eager at his closing as at his first word.

It is doubtful if even in Mr. Bryan's own career of uninterrupted oratorical triumph is to be found a finer tribute to the power over the human heart of golden speech.

May Veto Pension Bill,

Washington, Feb. 16.—The prediction was freely made on the floor of the house to-day that President Taft will veto the Sulloway general pension bill if it passes the Senate.
Similar expressions have been heard frequently at the Senate end of the Capital, but not publicly made in debate. The bill would increase the pension rolls about $50,000,000 a year.

Seymour, Indiana, Feb. 17.—The smallest child and the smallest set of twins ever born in this part of Indiana were born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Steele, of near Fleming, a small station four miles east of Seymour, on the B. & O. railroad. Both are boys, the smallest weighing only one pound and the larger two and one-half pounds. Both seem perfectly formed, and they bid fair to live, as they seem to be healthy in every way. Mrs. Steele is about 21 years of age, and her husband is about 40.
They have resided in this country
about a year.

HIDDEN DANGERS

Nature Gives Timely Warning That no Hopkinsville
Citizen Can Afford
To Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here is proof in the statement of a nearby resident.

George E. Wallace, of Cadiz, Ky., says: "I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to other sufferers from kidney trouble, as I found them to be a reliable remedy.
About two years ago my kidneys began to bother me. My condition finally became so bad that I knew I must do something for the trouble.
A friend finally advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a supply. Soon after I began taking them I was completely cured."

AMUSEMENTS

"The Thief"

"The Thief," that powerfully gripping drama of a woman who steals in order to make herself attractive in the eyes of her husband, produced two years ago at the Lyceum Theater, New York, will be seen at Holland's Opera House tonight.
It tells the story of Richard Voysin
and his wife comparatively poor,
who are visiting their rich friends,
Raymond La Gardes and Madame La Gardes. There is a son, Ferdinand La Gardes, who is in love with Madame Voysin. She laughs at his boyish passion. A thief steals 21,000 francs from Madame La Gardes. All indications point to Ferdinand, the son, and in a remarkable dramatic scene he admits the theft. Then follows the second act—in many ways the most remarkable act ever seen on the American stage. But two people are on the stage, Richard Voysin and his wife, the chief characters in this overwhelming, dramatic gem. From lightning to love, the husband assisting his wife in removing her wraps preparatory to retiring, the scene develops until the wife, questioned by the husband as to the source whereby she is able to buy gowns and undergarments of such costly texture, is forced to confess that she and not the son of their friends, stole the 21,000 francs from Madame La Gardes.

She pleads that she took the money to make herself beautiful, attractive and interesting in the eyes of her husband who has often admired the gowns and hats of her friends. So deeply did she love him that the level of the thief was not too low for her to sink to please him. He criticizes her severely and threatens to leave her. Then follows a scene that cannot be described in words.
It must be seen to be fully appreciated.

the scabies or sheep scab that is now epidemic among the flocks in certain parts of the state. More than 19,000 sheep shipped from Kentucky in six months were found to be af-where government inspection is maintained. If the sheep breeders of this State don't stamp out this disease the United States Bureau of

IS HUMAN VACUUM CLEANER

Amanda's Economies in Line of Good Housekeeping Have a Screw Loose.

Long before the introduction of the vacuum cleaner Amanda had achieved by sheer persistence of arm, the energetic wielding of broom and brush, the precise results accomplished by this excellent invention. Her husband whimsically complains that the house is always in process of renovation and seldom is a condition which can be considered comfortable and livable, but he is a mere man and little can be expected of him. Of course, Amanda is ill from time to time, usually as the result of doing more than she ought. She has headaches, backaches and nerves that are on edge. Her sons slip out of the house in the evening because they prefer to be where they are not reproved if they draw a chair from its place or leave a newspaper on the floor. Her daughters enjoy visiting much more than staying at home, and her maid seldom remains longer than a week or two. She had nineteen successive maids in a single season. Somehow Amanda's economies in the line of good housekeeping have a screw loose. She observed one day that she sympathized with the women who liked to have her house perfectly ordered and who then wished that she could take her family and live in the barn so that the house need not be disturbed.—Margaret E. Sangster, in Christian Herald.

INVISIBLE INDIANS.

All Indians seem to have learned a wonderful way of walking unseen—making themselves invisible like spiders, which, in case of alarm, caused for example by a bird alighting on the bush their webs are spread upon, immediately bounce themselves up and down on their elastic threads so rapidly that only a blur is visible. The wild Indian power of escaping observation, even where there is little or no cover to hide in, was probably slowly acquired in hard hunting and fighting lessons while trying to approach game, take enemies by surprise, or get safely away when compelled to retreat. And this experience transmitted through many generations seems at length to have become what is vaguely called instinct.—John Muir, in the Atlantic.

HELPS CONVICTS TO REFORM

Splendid Work Being Done by Officials of John Howard Industrial Home at Boston.

What society shall do with discharged prisoners is slowly but surely being solved by the John Howard Industrial home at Boston, which celebrates its twentieth anniversary soon. A most pathetic object is the discharged prisoner, who thinks every passer-by sees the prison stigma upon him. This saps his courage and he slips back again until once more he is associating with criminals. The Howard home seeks to furnish him with a grip upon a new life.

During the last 20 years nearly 21,000 discharged prisoners have been cared for by the home until positions have been found for them. The home was founded in 1890 by the present superintendent, Albert Arnold, and several other workers.

"I am sometimes asked," says Superintendent Arnold, his kindly face beaming good nature, "how many men are deserving of help? I always reply that all are good men. Every one has good points."

"Too much criticism is directed against them for the slightest errors. All they need is encouragement in order to forget the old life and start the new."

"STRANGE OATHS."

Before Mr. Justice White took the oath of chief justice he was required to subscribe to the "oath of allegiance" required of all ex-Confederates entering upon federal office. When Judge Buchanan presented himself in the Tennessee supreme court as a member of that body appointed by the governor a few days ago, he was called upon, under the law of the state, to swear that he had not engaged in a duel since the passage of the statute on the subject and that he would not do so during his term of office.

It is well that judges on the bench be bound by sufficient formal obligations and pledges. At the same time such oaths as those mentioned were formulated for times far other than the present, and it might be well to abolish them.

CURRENT COMMENT

CREAM OF NEWS COMPILED AND COLLECTED FROM ALL SOURCES

The Weather.

FOR KENTUCKY—Fair and continued cold Tuesday.

According to Wm. E. Curtis, the nations of Europe have paid in 25 years $67,500,000,000 to maintain their armies, a stupendous price to pay for peace.

The Frankfort News-Journal was changed to a morning paper Friday and is getting better all the time.

The Seelbach Hotel is to build a ten-story annex, with 150 rooms, to meet the demands for cheaper rates for rooms. Popular prices will be charged in the new addition.

The Mayfield Messenger says J. C. Speight, of that place, will be the Republican nominee for Governor and that he never really wanted to be District Attorney. Lined up soundly behind him will be Frank Fisher, Senator Bradley, State Treasurer Ed Farley, Ben Bruner, Congressman Langley and every Federal office holder in the state of Kentucky. This aid means that a solidified machine already is lining up the boys in the trenches for Speight.

The way the Democratic Executive Committee is handling the primary election matter is getting to be almost a party scandal. Three meetings have been held and still the candidates who have not already quit the field do not know when the entries will close. At the first meeting, the primary was called for May 27 for only a part of the offices and the statement was made that the candidates would not be held up. At the second meeting, the primary was extended to the senatorial race and the candidates assessed $18,500. At the third, but little was done except to increase these assessments 25 per cent. and leave the poor candidates in suspense, although it is less than 100 days until the election. What is the purpose of all this juggling? Is it to force off the track all but a few candidates and re-establish the same sort of machine rule that wrecked the party four years ago? Has the object lesson to the South of us been so soon forgotten? Cannot wisdom come from experience? It seems not.

DuRelle Wins out.

The President renominated George DuRelle, of Louisville, to be United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky.

The Maine House of Representatives passed the Senate resolution resubmitting a popular vote the constitutional amendment on prohibition drafted in 1884. Nineteen Republicans voted with eighty-six Democrats for resubmission.

Young Jay Gould.

The engagement of Jay Gould to Miss Annie Douglas Graham was announced at a dinner in New York. Mr. Gould is a son of George Gould, and his fiancée was a bridesmaid at the DeCies-Gould wedding.

Another Lyncher.

At Newark, O., Clarence Timmons, charged with first-degree murder, in connection with the lynching of Carl Ethrington, of Kentucky, changed his plea of not guilty to a plea of guilty of manslaughter.

Capt. Davis Declines.

Capt. Brinton B. Davis, president of the Louisville Commercial Club, has declined to accept the office of Colonel of the First Kentucky Regiment, conferred upon him at the election recently held by that organization. In a letter addressed to the officers and members of the regiment, he acknowledges the high tribute paid him, but declines to serve, stating that his own business and his work as head of the Commercial Club take up all his time.

E. J. Ashbey Suicides.

E. J. Ashbey, a leading merchant of Madisonville, committed suicide Friday, by drinking a bottle of carbolic acid, in the wood house on his lot. He left no explanation. He was rich and leaves a family.

Another J. D.

Joseph D. Rockefeller, a cousin of John D. Rockefeller, died at South Bend, Ind., at the age of 90 years.

Was It Miles?

Paducah papers are having a controversy over the identity of a man who had "Allie Miles" tattooed on his arm and was trying to sell some diamonds to local jewelers. The News-Democrat says the man was Arthur Miles, but the Sun says he did not resemble the man who escaped from the Western Asylum. He was turned loose.

Will Plead His Own Case.

Senator Lorimer announced that he will defend his right to his seat before the Senate Wednesday. His remarks will likely close the discussion of the case, and an early vote is looked for.

Awful List.

The Viceroy of Manchuria estimates that there have been 65,000 deaths from the bubonic plague in his province. It is believed, however, that the number of fatalities will nearly double those of the official estimates.

Eczema Cure a Beauty Wash

Although D. D. D. Prescription has been recognized for years as the one remedy for Eczema, Psoriasis, and all other forms of skin diseases, it is now known that there is no other wash, even those used by the beauty specialists, that can compare with this mild liquid for cleansing the skin of pimples, blackheads, rash, and all similar skin affections.

For this reason alone, a bottle of D. D. D. should be kept on hand in every household. A trial 25c bottle will show you the merits of this great remedy as a complexion wash.

D. D. D. seems to remove the cause, whatever the trouble may be, cleansing the skin, and leaving it as soft, as smooth and clear as that of a healthy child.

Get a 25c bottle today and keep it in the house.

CITY COUNCIL

In Midmonth Meeting Hears Report on Several Matters

The City Council met Friday night for routine business all present.

Chairman Barnett, of the Corporation Committee, reported that J. W. Ruck, an electrical expert from Nashville, had been engaged to test the electric meters of the city, upon the petition of 85 citizens, and was engaged in the work and would submit a report at the next meeting.

The Committee to investigate cost of building an addition to the City Hall was given further time.

Councilmen Randle and Barnett were named as a committee to negotiate with Jno. T. Waller for the purchase of a copy of his new map of the city.

Dr. J. E. Stone, Health Officer, filed report for 1910 and also submitted his monthly report for January, showing 16 births in the city (11 white and 5 colored) and 25 deaths. The Council directed Mr. Lucian H. Davis, chairman of the City Board of Health, to go to Bowling Green and confer with Dr. J. N. McCormack, State Secretary, concerning the refusal of his Board to recognize the City Board of Health.

A permit was authorized to be granted to Sam Frankel to erect a one-story brick storehouse on the corner of Main and Twelfth streets, to cost $4,000.

COMPLICATION.

Of Diseases Causes Death of Miss Campbell.

Miss Emeline Campbell died yesterday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Delitha Hamby, near Crofton, of a complication of diseases. She was about 80 years old and had never been married. She was much beloved by her many friends for her kind disposition and noble character. Interment will take place today at the Campbell burying ground, near the home.

Bleeding Candidates More.

The Democratic State Executive Committee, in session at the Louisville Hotel reaffirmed its action, in a primary and including the senatorial race in it. Assessments for the various races were raised 25 per cent and the subcommittee was given two weeks' additional time to draft the call and fix the date for closing the entries.

Castle Heights defeated Bethel College, Russellville, in two games of basket ball last week.

RAISED TO $20

Counterfeiter Baffled Here Succeeds at Owensboro.

A week or two ago Cashier A. H. Eckles came into possession of a $1 bill that had been cleverly raised to a $20 bill. While an investigation was being quietly made, the matter was kept out of the papers. The man who attempted to pass it for a $20 bill has not been seen again and has evidently gone to Owensboro. The Messenger says a similar raised bill was passed on John Midkiff, a grocer, by a tall, smooth shaved, dark complexioned man wearing a brown shirt, derby hat and a light checked coat. The police have been unable to find him.

TOOK TWO GAMES.

H. H. S. Won From Cumberland City.

The Hopkinsville High School boys took both games of basket ball from the Cumberland City, Tenn. Academy team. They won the contest Friday night by the score of 42 to 17 and Saturday night's game resulted in a score of 36 to 13 in favor of the local team. The work of the High School team was superb in both contests, and, although the visiting team was made up of boys much larger than those composing the local team, the latter won with ease.

$10,000 Cut.

The salary of Dublin's Lord Mayor-elect, John D. Farrell, has been cut from $18,000 to $8,000 a year. Mr. Farrell says he will close the mansion house and live at home.

CHECK ON HAND.

For Payment of Sheep Killed by Dogs.

County Clerk Stowe is in receipt of a check for $479.50 from the state auditor, covering the greater part of the amount of claims due for sheep killed by dogs in Christian county during the year 1910 and claimants can get their money by calling on Mr. Stowe. The total amount of claims is $557.50, leaving a balance of $78 yet due.

Two More Naval Officers Dead.

Rear admiral Strong Bogert, medical director, U. S. N., retired, died in New York, and Commanded Herbert G. Gates, U. S. N., died in Washington.

CLEANING DAY HINTS

USE A SOLUTION OF WASHING SODA ON TILED GRATES.

Wear Rubber Goggles When Potting Down a Carpet—Paper Will Stick Over Whitewash if Skim Milk Is Put in the Paste.

To clean tiled grates, a strong solution of washing soda thickened to make a paste with fuller's earth is excellent. This will easily remove stains or grease, while it is equally efficient in the case of grease-spotted marble. The paste should be left on for an hour or two, and then washed off with a flannel dipped in as hot water.

In putting down a carpet it is an excellent plan to slide a pair of goggles over the shoes. The rubber enables the carpet to be drawn out and stretched by simply walking or pushing the carpet with the feet from the center to the corners.

In papering a room which has hitherto been whitewashed, it is not easy to make the paper adhere satisfactorily. The experiment should be tried of forming the paste with skim milk instead of water. The milk must, however, be carefully skimmed so that every drop of the cream has been removed, the whey of separated milk being the best for the purpose. The paste must be scalded well, and should on no account be too thick.

The best method of cleaning a mirror, whether new or antique, is that of rubbing it in the first instance with a sponge saturated with methylated spirits, and then sprinkling the surface of the glass with powdered indigo. If this is left for a few moments, and then dusted off with a clean leather, a good polish should be obtained.

Larded Liver.

Cut half a pound of fat salt pork into lardons and thrust them about half an inch apart into fresh calf's liver, so that they project on both sides. Put two tablespoons of butter into a saucepan with a small onion (unleaved), pepper and some sweet herbs, chopped, also a few spoonfuls of strained tomato juice. Cover closely and set in a frying pan of boiling water for one hour, keeping the outer pan full all the time and turning the liver twice. Then take out the saucepan and set over the fire, but cook slowly. When the liver is nicely browned below, turn it. At the end of 40 minutes boil up once sharply and for the first time. Take out the liver and keep hot. Add a little boiling water to the gravy, strain, thicken with browned flour and pour over the liver.

The City Mills of Pembroke, owned by Q. F. Combs & Co., were burned Saturday morning at an early hour, the fire being of unknown origin. It was first discovered on the third floor of the building and there was no way to save it. The building contained about 1,200 bushels of wheat and 200 bushels of corn, some flour and other property, all of which was destroyed. The loss is $5,000 with some insurance. Vasingd Thana, India.
Jan. 20, 1911.
"God is blessing me and helping me in many ways. I am doing Evangelistic work now instead of building as formerly. I have just returned from a big Hindoo fair, where we had many opportunities to preach God's word. We preached to many who never heard the Gospel before, distributed nearly 275 Gospels, besides tracts. Pray for us. Both children are well and bright and happy. Mrs. Gregory keeps well.

We were formerly at Keharch, but moved to Vasingd about two months ago and from here expect to do Evangelistic work. I am getting ready for another trip into the Jungle to visit villages which have never been visited by a missionary. Pray for us that God may bless and use us for His glory, and that He will supply the extra needs required for touring in the Jungle.

Remember me to all the kind friends, who are praying for me and write me when you can.

With much love and best wishes I am your friend,

A. H. Gregory.

A King Who Left Home.

Set the world to talking, but Paul Mathulka, of Buffalo, N. Y., says he always KEEPS AT HOME the King of all Luxuries—Dr. King's New Life Pills—and that they are a blessing to all his family. Cure constipation, headache, indigestion, dyspepsia. Only 25c at all druggists.

Points About People

HARRISON—Prof. Edmond Harrison, of Greensboro, N. C., who is here on a visit to his daughters, celebrated his 74th birthday Friday. His health is now excellent and the veteran teacher and minister is enjoying his stay in Hopkinsville, where everybody is his friend. He expects to return home with Mrs. Harrison in a week or two.

NASH—Rev. Chas. H. Nash, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church, has retired from the ministry, at least for the present. He resigned his pastorate at Hawkinsville, Ga., about the first of the year and has bought a home in Greensboro, N. C., where his daughter, Mrs. R. W. Harrison, lives. Dr. Nash's old trouble with his knee has returned and his leg is now in a plaster cast and he is unable to walk. His friends here will regret to learn of his misfortune.

Too Sets.

After March 1 the Illinois Central will be divided into two grand divisions. This means two sets of general officers.

The commission has been unable to supply the demand for male stenographers and typewriters, especially at Washington, D. C. Young men who are willing to accept appointment at an entrance salary of $840 to $900 per annum, have excellent opportunities of appointment. Advancement of capable appointees is reasonably rapid. The government field offers a desirable field to bright and ambitious young men.

In accordance with an act of congress an applicant for examination for a position in the apportioned departmental service at Washington, D. C., will be required to be examined in the state or territory in which he resides, and to show in his application that he has been actually domiciled in such state or territory for at least one year previous to the examination.

Application forms and full information in regard to these examinations may be obtained by addressing the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Catholic Census.

The 1911 Wiltz Official Catholic Directory gives the number of Catholics in the United States as 14,618,761. The figures do not include the insular possessions. There are 147,607 Catholics in Kentucky and 223,978 in Indiana.

Attack Like Tigers.

In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt-rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Calif., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c at all druggists.

STATE WILL AID

In Erecting $15,000 Armory, Says Frankfort Dispatch.

A Frankfort dispatch says the state will assist in building two armories, one at Ashland to cost $25,000 and one in Hopkinsville to cost $15,000, for use of the military companies located at those two places. Both buildings will be handsome and well adapted to the purpose. The erection of these armories is in line with the plan to improve the facilities of the state guard and put the companies on a sounder basis.

Nothing is known here of the movement referred to. The City Council is considering plans for an annex to the City Hall with a basement story suitable to be rented for an armory.

It's a short lane that has no turn!

THE MAGAZINES

National Magazine.

With a gayety rated unusual for the dignified National Magazine, with its strong masculine covers and lusty spirit, the current issue of Joe Chapple's Boston Magazine appears with a shy and sweet sixteen head—and hair arranged in the very latest coiffure. The effect is positively stunning.

Announcement is made that William Hodge, the "Man from Home," is to be preented as an author. The opening chapters of the serial story "The Guest of Honor," are to appear in the March National, and the editor avers that William Hodge will shine in the literary firmament as brightly as it has in drama.

Joe Chapple opens his Washington Department with the comment that the personal correspondence between President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt suggests the melliflence of the Valentine month. There is a dash of elbow gossip about every phase of government affairs at Washington, and the inimitable stories from the cloak room are told as only the editor of the National can tell them.

The Smart Set For March.

James Barnes novel "Unexplained" is the feature of the SMART SET for March. This novel presents a picture of New York society. The hero is a young man who acts the part of good friend to all his acquaintances—the sort of person to whom everyone turns in time of trouble and who finds himself left in the lurch while his friends go carelessly on to enjoy the freedom from worry secured through his efforts. There are many such "friends in need."

An Amateur Hobo," by Elliott Flower, is a tale of an unusual wager in which a man of wealth and social position assumes a peculiar role.

"The Little Voice," by Jay Hardy tells of a psychic experiment worked by a couple of Americans in Paris—with an interesting conclusion.

"The Flavor of life," by Ellen Heney is a story of a woman who gives up her illusions and decides that a husband makes a good substitute. "Frozen Fire," by Frank K. M. Rehn, Jr., shows the fatal result of repressing all one's healthy emotions. "The Trinity Miraud," by Mabel Wood Martin, is a moving story of an artist's ideals. "Paula's Red Hair," by Aura Woodin Brentzell, is a tale of chorus girl life and an ascent into higher realms.

Franz Moinar, who wrote that wonderful play of a few seasons ago "The Devil," contributes, in collaboration with Joseph Teleki, a clever one-act sketch entitled "The Actress," which is a scene between a wife and the woman who has stolen her husband's love.

Other features of this number of the SMART SET include "The Unbeliever" a powerful story on a religious theme by M. F. Carny.

From State wide to Local Option.

The Alabama Senate passed the Parks local option bill by a vote of 21 to 12 in the same shape as it came from the house. Gov. O'Neal will sign the measure, but it will not become effective until the Legislature passes laws regulating the sale of liquor.

HIGH CLASS

Concert Givers at the Tabernacle February 22.

The Skovgaard Concert Party which will appear at the tabernacle tomorrow night under the Auspices of Bethel Female College, is a party of highclass concert givers of exceptional merit, presenting a repertoire worthy the consideration of the finest musician and average listener. Skovgaard's violin is a magnificent Stradivarius instrument for which he paid $13,000 and was made in 1712.

The advance sale of tickets to the entertainment has been large and the company will be greeted with a good house.

The Woman in The Case.

—Philadelphia Inquirer: Wonder whether Mary Garden's new book will be bound in undressed kid?

—Pensacola Journal. Does Lillian Russell or Nat Goodwin hold the championship?

—New York World: Mme. Marie has been excluded from the French Academy of Sciences not because she is not sufficiently great or famous, but because she is a woman.

—Chicago Record Herald: Nellie Bly reports that her husband has run away with her money. Do you happen to be old enough to remember Nellie?

—Pittsburg Gazette-Times: In other words, Mme. Bernhardt will not give her farewell performance until the Panama Canal makes its debut.

—Milwaukee Sentinel: The fact that Mme. Calve is ill in Japan may be seized upon by Mr. Hobson as an excuse for throwing another one of his well known oratorical somersaults.

Purely Personal

Mrs. Henry C. Kenney, of Carrollton, Ill., is visiting Mrs. W. T. Tandy and other relatives.

Gaines Everett has accepted a position with the L. & N. railroad company as yard clerk at Howell, Ind., and went over to Howell Sunday to enter upon his duties.

Miss Louise Baynham returned yesterday to her home near Edgerton after a short visit to her aunt, Mrs. Chas. L. Nourse, and other relatives.

Miss Otey Bartley has returned from a visit to her aunt, Mrs. T. J. Baynham, near Edgerton.

Mrs. W. C. Bell was called home to Indianapolis by the illness of a relative. Mr. Bell will remain a few days longer, awaiting orders from his house.

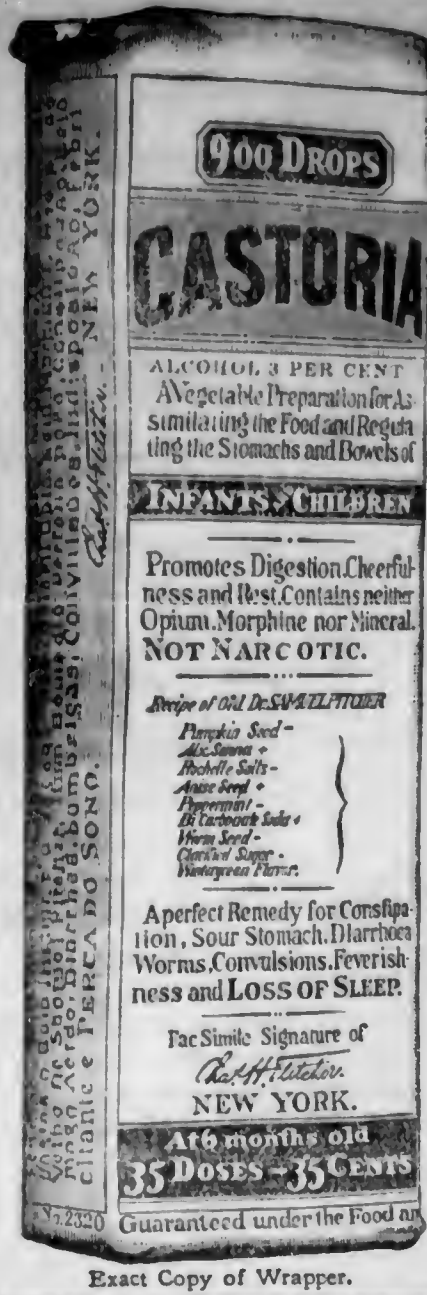

A Fatal Delay.

Henry Burnett, col., had his pocketbook stolen at Gracely several days ago, with $154. A young negro who stole the money came to this city and exhibited the roll a day or two, but had left town before the theft was reported to the police.

HAVE REASON TO BE PROUD

Achievements of the American People
A Proud View of Unbroken
Line of Progress.

During the past 25 years 100,000 miles of railroads have been built, requiring an expenditure of not less than $200,000,000 for labor and material. We are both producers and consumers. While our population is only a little over five per cent. of the population of the world, we produce 20 per cent. of the wheat, 40 per cent. of the iron and steel, 55 per cent. of the copper, 70 per cent. of the cotton and 80 per cent. of the corn of the world. Furthermore, with inconceivable rapidity, machinery has taken the place of human toil, and incidentally millions of slaves have been set free. The same triumphant progress has unvaryingly characterized every phase of human endeavor on the American continent. Civil and religious liberty is a natural condition as well as an attitude of mind. The story of agriculture, of manufacturing, of mining, of the arts and sciences, demonstrates the unbroken progress and uplift of the whole people. Finally, the health and well-being of the toiling masses have become, with constantly increasing earnestness of endeavor, the individual and collective purpose of the nation. And above all, the democratic idea, through good and evil report, has encouraged the personal work and character of the individual citizen. It has always believed that competition which encourages skill should remain paramount. It has always gloried in this personal competitive type as the ideal and preserver of democratic traditions.—James O. Fagan, in the Atlantic.

The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures.

"Favorite Prescription" is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice.

Some of the numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of KNOWN COMPOSITION. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 31 one-cent stamps for cloth-bound copy.

If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge, by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

Who Was There That You Knew?

IN the shadowy ranks of those who marched to defeat or death or victory fifty years ago in the mighty conflict that convulsed this great nation, is there a father or grandfather or uncle of yours? Would you like to see a photograph of him in that long ago day of his youth—a photograph that he never knew was taken? Perhaps we can show you one; and in any case, we can tell you a story, stranger than any detective fiction, of 3,500 priceless photographs that were lost and are found again.

3,500 Long Buried Photographs of the Civil War

THEY were taken by the greatest photographer in the United States of that day; they were bought by the United States Government for $30,000; they were buried for 50 years—they were buried there. But a duplicate set was kept by the photographer—who did not want to lose them; that duplicate set was knocked from a train to rest for nearly 50 years, until it was discovered by a New England collector. J. Pierpont Morgan tried to buy the collection—$25,000—President Garfield's General Benjamin F. Butler said it was worth $500,000—refused with the help of the Review of Reviews, the entire collection has been gathered into 10 great volumes and is placed within your reach at less than the value of one of the photographs. It is the most accurate, impartial history of the Civil War—of the camera cannot lie. It tells the story of the War you never heard before. Taken under protection of the Secret Service, these photographs bring to light thousands of little-known phases of the war; they penetrate to strange places and record strange things.

UNKIND

First Sweet Thing—Oh, he's awfully gone upon her, dear. I assure you. He's been praising her beauty to me for the last ten minutes, enlarging upon her eyes, her complexion, her mouth—
Second Sweet Thing—Oh, I don't think he could possibly do that, darling.

WHAT HE WAS DOING.

Two young Louisville clerks, having a day off, each hired a bicycle and took a spin in the country. Ten miles from town the cyclists decided to have a race. One distanced the other some 300 yards and was rejoicing in his victory, when, in turning a bad corner he collapsed over a heap of stones. The wheel was demolished and the rider was irretrievably mixed among the spokes. An aged woman, who happened to be passing, was met at a turn in the road by clerk No. 2. "My good woman," said he, "have you seen a young man on a bicycle around here?" "I have not," she answered, simply; "but I saw a young man up the road a ways, who was sitting on the bank, mending umbrellas."

AMERICAN IN LONDON.

Mrs. Miller Graham, who is now one of the wealthy hostesses of Grosvenor street, will take the place of Mrs. Keppel, who was such a great favorite of King Edward. She is the widow of a California millionaire and one of her ball novelties was a huge watermelon which was rolled into the middle of the room. A huge knife was supplied to cut it and when opened a tiny pickaninny hopped out and began to pelt the guests with flowers.

SAME LANGUAGE.

"I'm afraid we'll have to cut that man's acquaintance," said the woman of strictly correct ideas.
"Yes," replied Miss Cayenne. "He uses the same sort of language that we pay two or three dollars a seat to hear at a theater."

SIGNS ON TOPS OF THINGS

Stranger in New York Marveled at Advertisements Painted on Wagon Covers and Flat Roofs.

It wasn't the height of the buildings in lower Manhattan that impressed him, nor the crowds of Nassau street, nor the speed of the elevators, nor the intentness of the people, relates the New York Sun. He took them as matters of course—about what he had expected. When they took him up to the twenty-fifth floor he was plainly interested in the ships and the ferryboats. But these too were about what he had looked for. Presently, however, he caught something moving in the bed of the ravine at his feet. "By George," said he, "that's queer. I'd never thought of that." What he saw was a covered delivery wagon with the name of the firm painted broadly on the top. On the flat roof of a little building to the south was painted the name of a printer and the special kind of work he did. Elsewhere were names of fruiterers, dealers in office furniture, restaurant keepers, all painted on the roofs of their buildings. "Yes, sir," said the newcomer, "I consider those signs just as remarkable as the high buildings themselves."

COULDN'T USE CANADA DIME

Dignity and Self-Respect of the Panhandler Were Injured by Donation of a Foreign Coin.

The man was beating his way up against the wind on Park row, it being a dark and stormy night, when the inevitable panhandler appeared at his elbow and poured forth the usual plaintive tale of a sick mother and no work to be found anywhere. A dime—only a dime—would help a hard-working man to prevent death from starvation—and thirst. The man took about as much stock in the tale as in countless others he had heard, but he produced the dime and earned the profuse thanks of the gentleman with the ragged beard and incandescent nose.

He was about to dash for his car at the bridge, when the same voice again sounded in his ear, and he turned to behold his friend again with outstretched hand. "Say, mister," said Mr. P. Handler in a tone of formality slightly tinged with injured dignity, "I can't use this. It's a Canadian dime."—New York Press.

HIS LIMIT.

When Mayor Gaynor of New York was a guest of the president at the White House he was met in the street one afternoon by Harry L. Dunlap, chief of the Washington bureau for a big New York newspaper.

"I was just going for a little walk," said the mayor.

"Well, I'll go with you—" began Dunlap, thinking that here was a chance to get a lot of political information from Gaynor during the stroll.

"A little walk," continued Gaynor, "of about five miles."

That was too much for Dunlap. He had not walked that far in ten years. "I'll go with you," he concluded his sentence, "as far as the corner."—The Sunday Magazine.

FIRST GERMAN RAILWAY.

Seventy-five years ago the first railway was introduced into Germany. The experiment was naturally on a modest scale from Ludwigshafen joining up Nuremberg to Furth. The six kilometers of 75 years ago have increased today to 60,000 kilometers, a kilometer being five-eighths of a mile, and it is claimed that Germany today possesses the finest railway system in Europe. The first locomotive used on the Nuremberg-Furth line was named the Adler and was made under the superintendence of Stephenson in England. It cost £850.

Extravagance of Economy

"Robert," said Mrs. Tuttle, "I wish you would get a carpenter to fix that back porch; some will be hurt if it isn't attended to soon."

"All right," said Tuttle. "I know a man that will do it for one-half what a carpenter would charge. I think I can send him to do the job tomorrow."

"Robert Tuttle," exclaimed his wife, "I said I wanted a carpenter and a carpenter I am going to have. There shall be no more tramps and jobbers about this place!"

"Well, if you had to earn the money," protested Tuttle, "I think you wouldn't object so constantly to every effort I make to practice a little economy."

Mrs. Tuttle smiled. "Your efforts at economy usually prove to be boomeranges," she observed.

"Hush!" said Tuttle.

"Perhaps you have forgotten the time I asked you to get a plumber to mend a leak in the bathroom and you sent a tramp tinner away out here," persisted Mrs. Tuttle. "He came with a bar of solder and a soldering iron, but no furnace; so he had to heat his iron on the kitchen range, and by the time he got to the bathroom with it the iron would be too cold to melt the solder. When he had made at least a dozen trips without results he decided that if he had more light he would succeed better."

"And he had the audacity to ask me to hold a candle for him."

"Well, I lay down under the washstand and held the candle for him until I had a fellow feeling for those East Indian fanatics who hold their arms in one position until the arms grow that way. Your friend's frequent trips to the kitchen gave me welcome opportunities to empty the candle-grease out of my sleeve where it had dripped.

"Still, he evidently forgot that I was there, for he said several things that you would not like any one but yourself to say in my presence."

"Another thing I didn't like was the reflection he cast upon my sex. He called the iron, the solder, the pipe—in fact, everything that made trouble for him—'she,' which seemed dreadfully unjust when I was faithfully giving my services."

"Finally he gave it up until he could borrow a soldering pot, he said. Then he wondered if I had anything sticky that he could wrap that pipe with in the meantime. I told him after a lot of thinking that I had some sticky fly paper, but I mentally hoped that I might not be asked to assist in adjusting it to the broken water pipe."

"I watched with misgiving the laborious process of cutting that sticky stuff into strips, and was not at all surprised that he was soon hopelessly stuck on the fly paper, or the fly paper was hopelessly stuck on him—there were times when I couldn't tell which. I could do nothing less than try to relieve him, so in a little while I had all the fly paper stuck on me!"

"We passed it back and forth, sometimes one having it all, sometimes dividing it equally, and then again owning it jointly—he being attached to one end of a strip and I to the other."

"That game went on for some time, when by sheer luck one strip stuck to the pipe and we lost no time in winding it around and closing the hole. But we forgot that it was the hot-water pipe, and when the water flowed the paper loosened and the leak was worse than it was when he began."

"I think you will recall," said Mrs. Tuttle, how we took turns emptying a tub that night to save the ceiling below. And the next day a plumber charged just about double the regular price to fix the thing because we had had a nonunion man fooling with it. I don't call that economy!"

"No, sir. I'm going to have a fullledged bona fide, union-label carpenter to fix that decrepit back porch," finished Mrs. Tuttle with decision.

Tuttle waved his handkerchief frantically and said: "I surrender; please observe my flag of truce and let this slaughter cease. Have your carpenter; and if you think you can get through bossing him in time to meet me downtown for dinner I'll take you to the theater this evening. I've decided that it's economy to buy you off."

On the Shelf.

To the married woman and to the spinster alike it is always a shock to find that parties are being given for a younger set to which they are not bidden, for the realization that these younger members of society are classing them as "old" is not altogether pleasing. To the married woman this experience usually comes later than to the unmarried, for she will be asked to young gatherings when a spinster several years her junior will be omitted. Whether this is because her husband is still reckoned attractive, though married, or because of her utility as a chaperon, is an open question, but the fact remains. One spinster lately confessed that for several days after her first experience at being left out of a party she almost pinched herself, saying, "Can this be I that am so slighted?" for she dearly loved to dance and never had been a wall flower. Now she says she has slowly but surely been relegated to the dinner set, and there she cuts out the debutantes at every chance she gets in revenge.

A Rinsing Hint.

In washing fabrics of delicate color and in washing blankets be careful to rinse in water the same temperature as that in which the garment is washed.

This is particularly necessary in the case of blankets, as careful washing is often rendered useless by too sudden change of temperature in rinsing. In neither case must the water be too hot.

SPARE MINUTE FOR THE EYES

Nothing Gives Eyes Such Complete Rest as Habit of Closing Them Occasionally.

If you will spare a minute every half hour to the eyes they may be spared to you many years in consequence.

A well-known oculist declares nothing gives the eyes such complete rest as the habit of closing them occasionally for a minute or two. In threatened cases of eyestrain he has sometimes advised no other cure and the patient has recovered his normal sight.

Where one uses the eyes constantly, especially for close work, as the woman who does fine sewing, embroidery or painting, the relief to eyes of lifting them from the work and closing them while one slowly counts twenty-five cannot be overestimated.

Another rest is to change the point of vision from time to time. Look away from what you are doing and gaze blankly into space. Do not attempt to concentrate on anything, merely look out of the window or into a distant corner of the room.

Do not begrudge the time for this eye resting. It is the best sort of investment you can make and will not take half as much time or money as visits to the oculist.

How It Looked to Him.

Mrs. Dresser was looking over the grocer's bill.

"How many pounds are there in a peck, Henry?" she asked.

Her husband looked up from his newspaper.

"Are you trying to figure out the weight of your latest coiffure, my dear?" he asked.

TROUT FISHING AT NIGHT

Full Instructions Are Given by the Greatest of All Anglers, Izask Walton.

You are to know there is night as well as day fishing for a trout; and that in the night the best trouts come out of their holds. And the manner of taking them is on the top of the water with a great lob or garden worm, or rather two, which you are to fish with in a stream where the waters run somewhat quietly, for in a stream the bait will not be so well discerned. I say in a quiet or dead place, near to some swift, there draw your bait over the top of the water, to and fro, and if there be a good trout in the hole, he will take it, especially if the night be dark, for then he is bold, and lies near the top of the water, watching the motion of any frog or water rat, or mouse, that swims betwixt him and the sky; these he hunts after if he sees the water but wrinkle or move in one of these dead holes, where these great old trouts usually lie, near to their holds; for you are to note that the great old trout is both subtle and fearful, and lies close all day, and does not usually stir out of his hold, but lies in it as close in the day as the timorous hare does in her form; for the chief feeding of either is seldom in the day, but usually in the night, and then the great trout feeds very boldly.—Walton's Compleat Angler.

The Voice of Experience.

The oleomargarine dealers tell us that there is more real virtue in their product than in butter.

Yet we have known considerable butter that seemed amply able to resist temptation.

It certainly was strong enough.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

INTRODUCTION ANNO

Haughty Little Miss Shown Sentiment When Presented With Terrier.

There is a little Haughty Little Miss under six, who reaches the matter of sensitiveness. She has her points in respect to gameness. She was taken to a wood about a week ago. Miss played around in her aunt's place for awhile. Aunt let a playful young the yard, saying to the child, "This is your little four-terrier."

Five minutes later the aunt led to the front yard to call the house, but she wasn't to be seen. The fox terrier alone. There was a hunt for the child, and alarm, but the little girl didn't up. The aunt hustled to town. She had walked right to the town as soon as the fox terrier was presented to her.

"Why didn't you stay at her mother asked her in surprise." "She introduced me to a dog called the haughty little person and Plain Dealer."

Bank With Royal Deposits

The English banking world gratulating itself upon the recent large and acceptable account. King Manuel of Portugal has held the house of Coutts on the Strand, the deposit of his private fortune, England is so much richer for Manuel. This firm of Coutts is a remarkable establishment, by the way, for it has attracted the patronage of nearly all the royalty which has had occasion to leave money in London. Every English king from George II. to the present George has kept his wealth in their vaults, and Louis Philippe, the shah of Persia and Leopold of Belgium have all patronized the Coutts.
